

Ever want to drop off of the face of the earth?

You can do that when you drop into HL Canyon.

Quite possibly this property is the most peaceful place you'll ever experience.

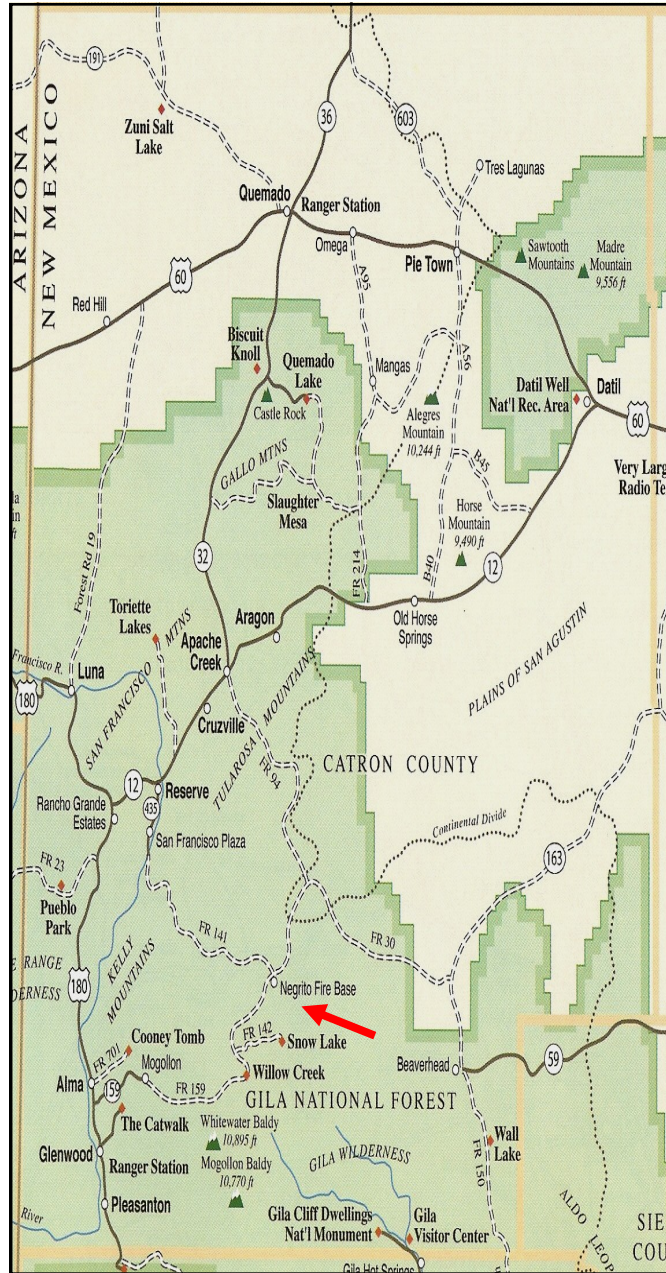

The property is 52 acres of rolling meadow land tucked back into HL Canyon with gorgeous ponderosa pine trees gracing the hillsides.

The catchment pond is spring fed and draws wildlife in abundance.

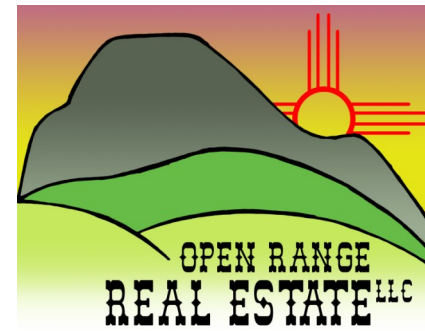

Rock formations create the northern boundary.

“HEART OF THE GILA”SM

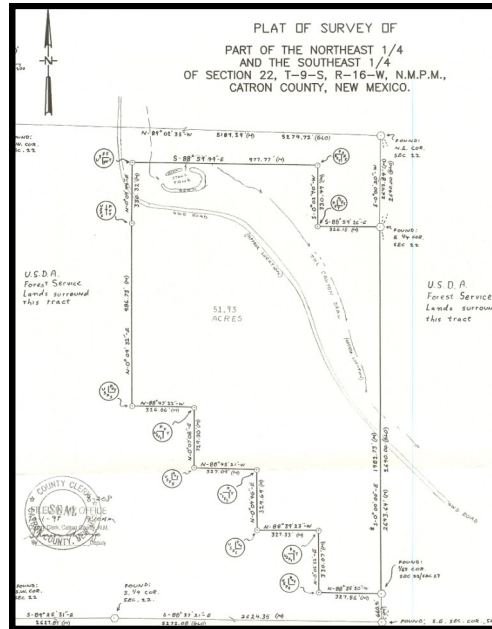

HL Canyon is approximately 10 miles from Snow Lake. Snow Lake is a lovely lake offering nice trout fishing and it is also the headwaters for the Middle Frisco of the Gila River.

Perhaps hiking, back packing, or horse backing is your recreation . . . There are millions of acres in the Gila National Forest for you to enjoy. The Gila National Forest surrounds this property.

The incredible Gila Wilderness area is only 10 miles via road and 4 miles as the crow flies!

A very very magical & special place.

If trophy elk hunting is your passion . . . This ranch is located in GMU 16A where the top Boone & Crockett trophy bull elk are harvested.

The darkest skies can be experienced here offering a light show of stars that you won't believe.
